

The London School of English is delighted to offer a 10% discount to BSCC members*.

You may need English language training for yourself, for a colleague or group of employees – here are some of the very good reasons that you should choose us as your partner:

- The London School of English is the oldest accredited English language school in the world; established in 1912, we have a wealth of experience
- We are the top language school group in the UK according to British Council inspection scores
- We are the most highly rated language school in the world on the independent Trustpilot website
- We have an average client rating of 4.8/5 and are categorised as 'Excellent'
- We are ISO 9001:2015 certified
- Proven to get great results

Trusted to deliver quality training by individuals, governments and professionals, we ensure our classes are relevant, practical and tailored to the needs of the client. Along with General and Business English, we are well-known for English for Specific Purposes, for example, English for HR, Legal English, Financial English, English for University Lecturers.

We deliver face to face training in virtual classes for groups and individuals supported by an advanced e-learning platform, and face to face immersion courses at our London centre.

The Swedish branch of the London School of English has been operating locally in the Nordic region for over 30 years. We offer a full range of customised training courses delivered online or in-company, and focus primarily on English for professionals and long-term language coaching.

London School Online offers online independent study courses suitable for mass-training with supervisor access and for individual clients too. Subjects include Legal English, English for the Hospitality Industry, General English and Business English. These can be branded with corporate clients' business name and logos upon demand.
